

Grammar

Transformation of Sentences.

1. As soon as she saw the lion, she ran away. (Make it negative)
2. A blacksmith's life is hard. (Negative)
3. A little learning is a dangerous thing. (Exclamatory)
4. She never neglects her lesson. (Affirmative)
5. The U.S.A is richer than ~~the~~ most other countries of the world. (Superlative)
6. English is one of the easiest subjects. (Comparative)
7. I prayed for her recovery. (Complex)
8. I still remember the suggestions of my grandfather. (Complex)
9. Give me water that I may drink (Simple)

Remarks

Teacher's Signature

10. I expect that I shall get a reward. (Simple)
11. To add to his misfortune his father died. (Compound)
12. Ruby was present. Rahim was present. (Compound)
13. He is the best pupil in the class. (Positive)
14. Had I but a brother to support me. (Assertive)
15. Everybody loves his motherland. (Interrogative)

Remarks

Teacher's Signature