

The Price of Freedom

A Read the following lines and answer the question

1. "How much milk does your animal give?"

a. Who said this?

Ans Lala Daudayal said this.

b. Why did the person ask this question

A The person asked this question because the animal i.e. the cow was for sale and he had a desire to buy it.

B Answer these questions:-

1 Why did Lala Daudayal stare at Rehman in amazement?

Ans: Lala Daudayal stared at Rehman in amazement because he could not believe that a person in penury could have such intense feeling for his pet. He was ready to lose five valuable rupees just to save his cow from the hands of a butcher. The large-heartedness, generosity and self-sacrifice of his poor man had really fascinated Lala.

Teacher's Signature

2. Why did Rehman ask Lala Daudayal for a loan of two hundred rupees?

Ans. Rehman asked Lala Daudayal for a loan of two hundred rupees because his mother expressed her earnest desire to go on a pilgrimage to Haj. Therefore, he required money to bear the expenses of the journey.

3. Why did Rehman choose to go to Lala Daudayal when he needed another two hundred rupees?

Ans. When Rehman was in dire need of money he decided to go to Lala Daudayal when he needed another two hundred rupees. He decided to go to

Teacher's Signature

Lala because though he felt that he would not lend him any more money but he was desperately in need of it. Rehman hoped against hope that there was ~~not~~ no harm in trying. It might melt Lala's heart seeing his deplorable financial condition

H.W. (in fair copy)

- (i) Write the textual meanings
- (ii) Pg 34 (Q A 1-b.) (Q B no. 4)
- (iii) Make sentences with:
  - a. Hapless -
  - b. promise -
  - c. pilgrimage